collage- a collection of disparate objects
arranged at random.

You know, it would be nice if you could remember a year in sharp black and white pictures, chronological order, and clear cut catagories

BUT

My year seems to run together. Faces get fuzzy. I'm not sure just when things happened. I recall snatches of songs, that test I really bombed, when Jerry played the water glasses, Free Form Week, and the heart breaking last seconds of the sectional.

THAT'S WHY

Our books theme is collage, reflecting the year 1971-72 when I was . . . . . .

Noon Nuttiness Is Senior Triumph

One of the many events of the Lion Olympics was the pie eating contest. The Olympics were moved from Saturday afternoon to a weekday noon hour to encourage more students to participate. These boys apparently skipped lunch--look at them devour those pies. Middle, these boys apparently felt we should go back to the time of manual labor and scrap the machinery. What dedication! The Seniors wheeled on to a victory with Jeff Main and Steve Getz as representatives. Below: the Juniors tugged their way to victory over the Freshman tug-of-war team. The Lion Olympic champions were the Seniors.

Lion Happening

During Homecoming 71-72, the B.H.S. classes worked hard to boost our team's spirit. TOP; the class of 72 finally won their first float competition with the GREEN MACHINE. MIDDLE: The juniors came through with a BURST OF POWER. LOWER LEFT: HATCHING A LION VICTORY was the theme for the sophomore float. The freshmen made a LION HAPPENING. Miss Bonnie Ehret won the title of Homecoming Queen with her scintillating personality. Max Huff, one of the co-captains presented her with the roses, and Jackie Guard, last year's queen crowned her, as the band accompanied the event. Bonnie's court was Deb Jones and Connie Ehret.

Misses Provide A Little Bit Of Heaven

The annual Bremen Junior Miss Pageant sponsored by the Bremen JC's was held in the Bremen High School Auditorium. The audience experienced "A Little Bit of Heaven" as the girls performed in the twilight. Mary Martin was ammounced the Junior Miss of 1971-72. Mary was then crowned by Sally Ann Woodward, the Junior Miss of 1970-71. The other titles were First runner-up; Barb Mougin, Second runner-up; Vicki Maust. Other finalists were Barb Stoneburner and Deb Oberleas. Miss Congeniality is one of the most coveted positions in the Pageant because the contestants select this title. Miss Wanda Kline was selected for this title.

Glass Menagerie

"like bits of a shattered rainbow"

THE GLASS MENAGERIE, the fall play, was presented on November 5 and 6 by a small but talented cast. Many hours of work and concentration were put forth by the cast: Mel Bunge, Richard Berkey, Carol Haab, and Steve Getz; the director, Mr. Sriver; and the entire company.

Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer prize-winning play is a drastic change of pace from the light-hearted comedies and musicals which are the usual fare. Being out of the normal realm the serious overtone of the play was not as well received by the audiences.

Sadie Hawkins Strikes Bremen's Blow For Women's Lib

The Junior Tri-Hi-Y's Sadie Hawkins dance is the once a year chance for a gal to take the initiative and ask her favorite feller to go out. Marryin Sam, shown here, sometimes goes around disguised as Mr. Shriver but on this night he "hitches" all those who want to get hitched. There is even a solid aluminum pop-top can ring for a wedding ring. Carol Garner and her date, who won best costume, are taking advantage of Sam's services. Also, Mr. Howell and Miss Bowser are showing that teachers can be human and some of them can even dance.

"Curses Foiled Again"

"Help, help somebody save me!" This was the familiar cry of a damsel in distress. Saturday night, the opening of the melodramas. Melodramas are a one act play where people boo villians and cheer for the hero. But watch out sometime "things are not always as they seem. Four plays were presented this year. Tillie the Teller, Switched at the Crossroads, Alis Smedly Pewtree, and the Miners Daughter. The gym was packed Saturday afternoon and night. The audience gasped when the dynamite blew up in Jeff Campbells hands. They roared when Jeff Main grabbed Carol Dietrich in his arms and said "Baby how about a kiss." In plays it is mostly pretend and the actors can play people they never could Sriver commented its been a fun show!

BELOW: Jill flashes the peace sign, as she seems to be enjoying the girls volleyball practice. Jill is one of the "toughies" in girls volleyball.
ABOVE: Team members all seem to have their eyes on the ball, as Janet gives it a good whap. Hard practice and a lot of effort are what the girls strive for in making such a fine team. G.A.A.'s main goal is for the girls to have fun and to develope good sportsmanship. This year a new attraction was ad added to their many sports. It was the adding of cheerleaders. They were as follows: Patti Farrer, Kim Taylor, Nancy Hendricks, Nancy Whitman, and Karen LaFree.

B.H.S. cheerleader's are; Dedicated..Dandy.. Never Defeated..Declaring.Lions are Best..Dependable..Dicker with the Administration..Keen Jolly..Joyful..Jubilant. Loud..Leader's..Loyal to B.H.S..Magnificent..Memorable..Always Moving.. Ready for Action..Regard the Lions and KING...Sane most of the time..Spunky Talkative..Not Typical.. Frosh. Darla H. Lori N. Linda L.; B-Team Kay C. Sis A. Renee P. Deb S.; Varsity Karen C. Mary M. Jill K. and Terry H. These girls have done an awful lot this year and we will never forget them

Some of the same faces which appear in GAA also are here in Future Homemakers proving that Women's Lib hasn't won out yet. Loretta, ABOVE, and Tenna learn to plan a child's party.

In the large group ABOVE you will find award winning homemakers Linda Smith, Betty Crocker award; Barbara Stoneburner, Certificate of Merit; Debbie Jones, Crisco Trophy. Another of the group's large projects was a spring style show in which girls modeled the garments they created, from sportswear to evening gowns. Miss Tyler shows the girls that it takes skill to be a woman.

The Art Club was very active in 1972. Under the leadership of Cindy Walter, Pres.; and Tom Spencer, V.P.; they sponsored a Valentines Day Party, PICTURED HERE, complete with heart shaped pizza. A trip to the Indianapolis Art Museum came in April and the Club financed a summer workshop scholarship for Jill Kipfer at Ball State.

Swing Choir Success

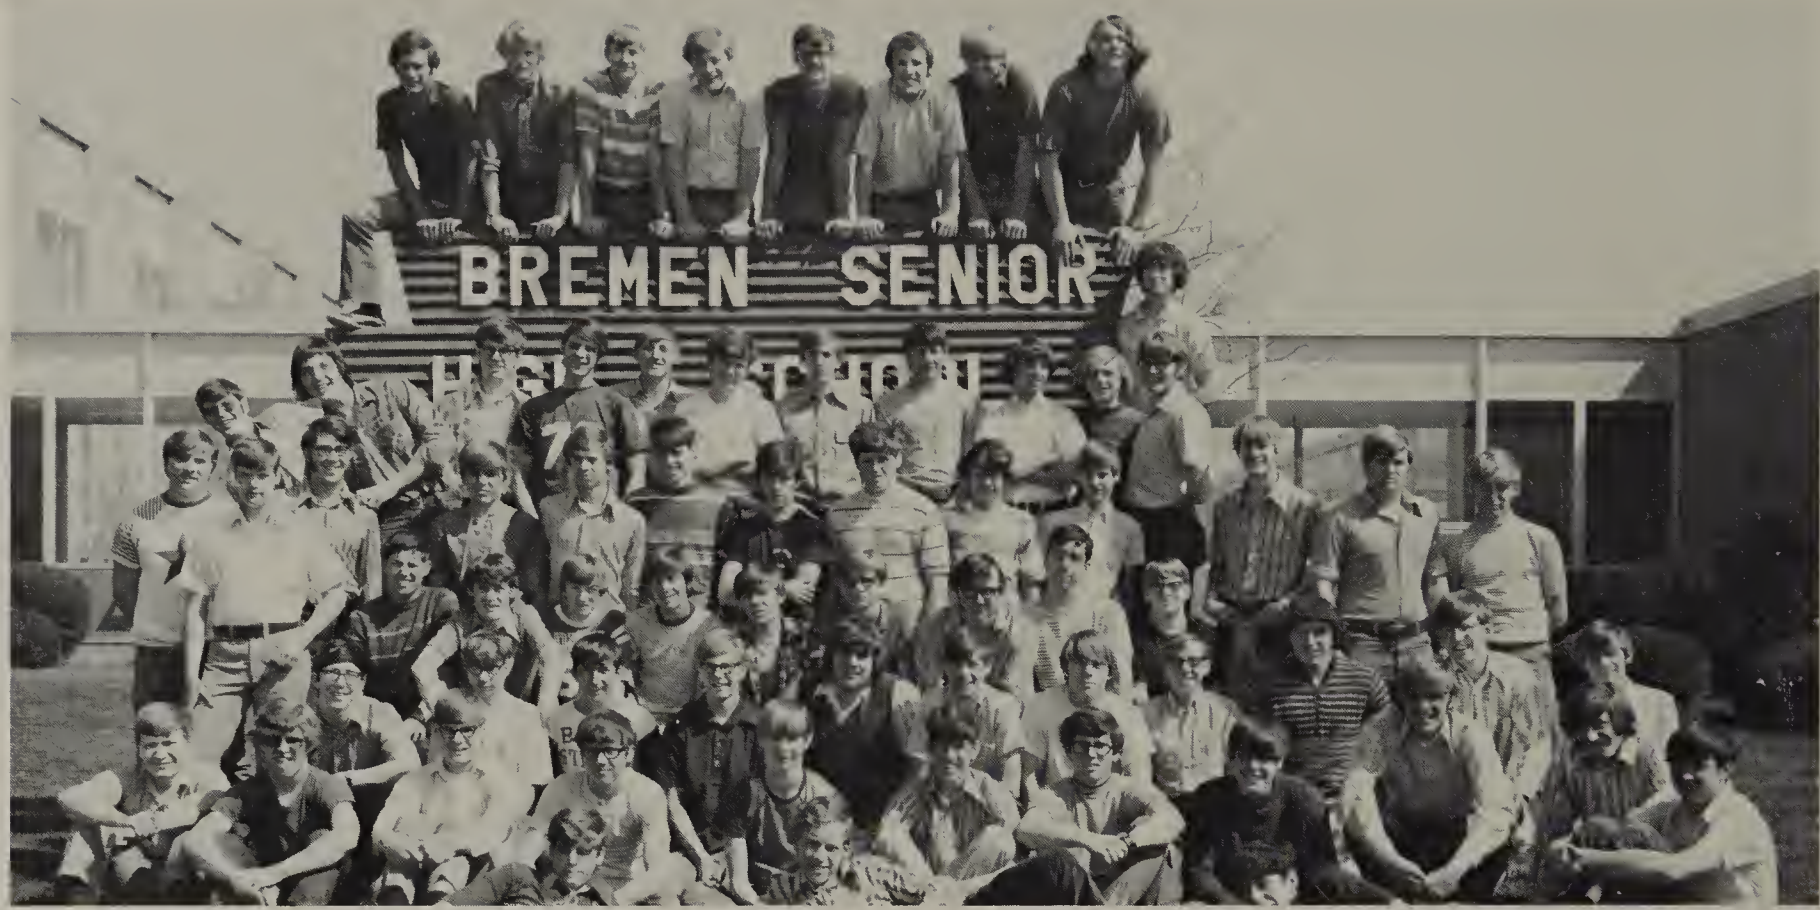
Performing along with the Band at the Spring and Fall Concerts was the B.H.S. Choir. A new addition this year is the Swing Choir. They have gone and performed in various towns around our community and at clubs right here in Bremen. They traveled with Doc Bowen and put on a Fabulous Spring Spectaculur. They put in long hard hours under the di-of Larry Howell. Don't you agree that these kids deserve a big hand of "APPLAUSE".

Future
Agri-Businessmen

The FFA sponsors two annual events, pictured here, the cider sale and the cherry pie social for the teachers.

Under the leadership of Pres. Tom Monhaut, VP Max Huff, Sec. Bill Gilmer, Treas. Deane Leeper, Rep. Dick Balmer, Sent. Kevin Sherk, Parl. Roland Huff, and Historians Sharon Jones and Gene Leeper, the club had a successful year.

Top yearly awards were presented at the banquet to Max Huff, DeKalb agricultural achievement; Rich Verhaegne, star grassland award; Tom Monhaut, star chapter farmer; and Bonnie LaFree, chapter sweetheart.



Ah. . . don't they look pretty? No seriously this is Hi-Y Club. One might ask "Wow do they do alot for other people and the community, I mean there are so many of them?" This is the only social boys club in our school. This should be changed immediately if not sooner. Their advisor is our own advisor Mr. Wilson.

What is this a bathing beauty contest? Well it could be but all these girls belong to a worth while organization called Jr. Tri-Hi-Y. They sponsor a Sadie Hawkins dance every year. This gives the girls around B. H. S. a chance to catch their man. Smart going girls. Their sponsor is Mrs. Goodall.

What can you say about a bunch of swell girls? That they visit older people... Hold ideal Banquets for ladies and Mother teas. Yes all of this is a part of Sr. Tri-Hi-Y.

Some might ask why we feature a math class and not other courses. Well if anybody can make it through four years of x(y/x+yz=zxy)xy=2 then they should be featured in this book. Hey Jane, you don't belong in there!!!

Rated U For Upperclassmen

Senior Tri-Hi-Y officers were Deb Jones, Pres. Susie Clauss, VP; Rhonda Baldwin, Sec.; Jean Holm, Treas.; Mary Martin, Chaplain; Terry Higgins; Sgt.; and Judy Helmlinger, Hist.

Four year Math students include, SEATED: M. Ingerham, J. Main, R. Dodson, J. Campbell, C. Rowe, S. Keifer, B. Stine, KNEELING: Terry Hansen, STANDING: J. Graverson, L. Smith, C. Schramm, Mr. MacPherron, J. Wagner, P. Keifer, M. Huff, J. Siefer, R. Secor, and T. Monhaut.

This year the Bremen High School Band, even though it was small in numbers, made a remarkable improvement under the direction of Mr. Berger. In the fall on the football field and in the spring and summer in parades, they were accompanied by the attractive Pom-Pom girls at right. The band was honored by being asked to march for Otis Bowen Day. On this day, they faithfully plodded through the Bremen streets in freezind weather and snow to honor the Doctor.

Beethoven's Helpers

Every Basketball game members of the Pep band played to the tune of "The Stripper" while B. Mougin and A. Forsythe did their thing on the gym floor. Drum Major D. Oberleas led the band during football in preparation for her career as a music director. She will be a rough one. Pres. of the band was Ted Lantz, VP was Wanda Kline and Sec.-Treas. was Vicki Maust with special help from Randy Suttor.

Career Women

AT LEFT are the Future Nurses. Though the group is small, these girls have dedicated their lives to helping people. Most of them are candy stripers at the Community Hospital. Pres. L. Smith, VP C. Graverson, Sec. A. Forsythe, and Treas. K. Long, not pictured. ABOVE is the FTA, the teachers of tomorrow. They held a tea in honor of their Cadet Teacher sponsors and BELOW you see the girls making preparations for the tea. President is Deb Oberleas, VP Deb Dinkledein, Sec. Deb Unsicker, Treas. Monica Farrer.

Minds Behind B.H.S.

PICTURED ABOVE is BHS's great Student Council. They have done a lot for us like fixing the slot machine, oops, I mean applemachine, benches in the courtyard and Free Form Week just to mention a few. Pres. Charlie Sehramm, VP B. Ehret, Sec. N. Whitman, Treas. R. Yoder and Reporter B. Huff. BELOW is an equally talented group under the direction of Mr. Econ (Mr. Nierste) Jeff Main was honored this year by receiving a National Honor Society Scholarship. It is the first one awarded in the history of Bremen. Jeff is one of three Indiana winners and one of the 200 winners in the United States.

One Way Is GAA

Who said girl's can't play sports? Here a few of the girls prove you wrong by showing their talents on the volleyball and basketball courts.

Baccalaureate

Inspiration For Tomorrow

Baccalaureate is in some ways more traumatic than graduation. It is the first time you put on the cap and gown and the first time you march down the aisle in front of a million people. Some times you can lose your cool when your partner doesn't show up. Greg Price and Rick Sheppard can testify to how hard it is to walk up there alone. Robin Miller can tell you how embarassing it is to arrive five minutes late and to walk up with a partner twice your size. No one's "cool" was helped by the fact that it was over ninety degrees that day.

The speakers braving the heat were Reverand Kline and Reverand Wilhite. Their words of inspiration made it seem not quite so scary that tomorrow was right around the corner. You can see by the solemn faces on the next page that the graduates were given food for thought.

Science Club And

Lions Roar

It is appropriate that we group the Science Club and Lions Roar together Because as you can see the Science Club are voracious readers of the paper. This years Science Club officers are: Pres. Wayne Hochstetler, Veep. Jeff Main, and Sec.-Treas. Phillip Monhaut.

This years Lion Roar staff was directed by a young talented man right out of college. Mr. Downey had a few ideas the pupils did not agree with but he turned out to be very successful. This years paper had fewer errors and many interesting articles. They had four or five editors instead of one which proved to give more ideas and a better paper. Next year Mr. Downey will be sponser of the paper and sprig staff. To you we say good luck.

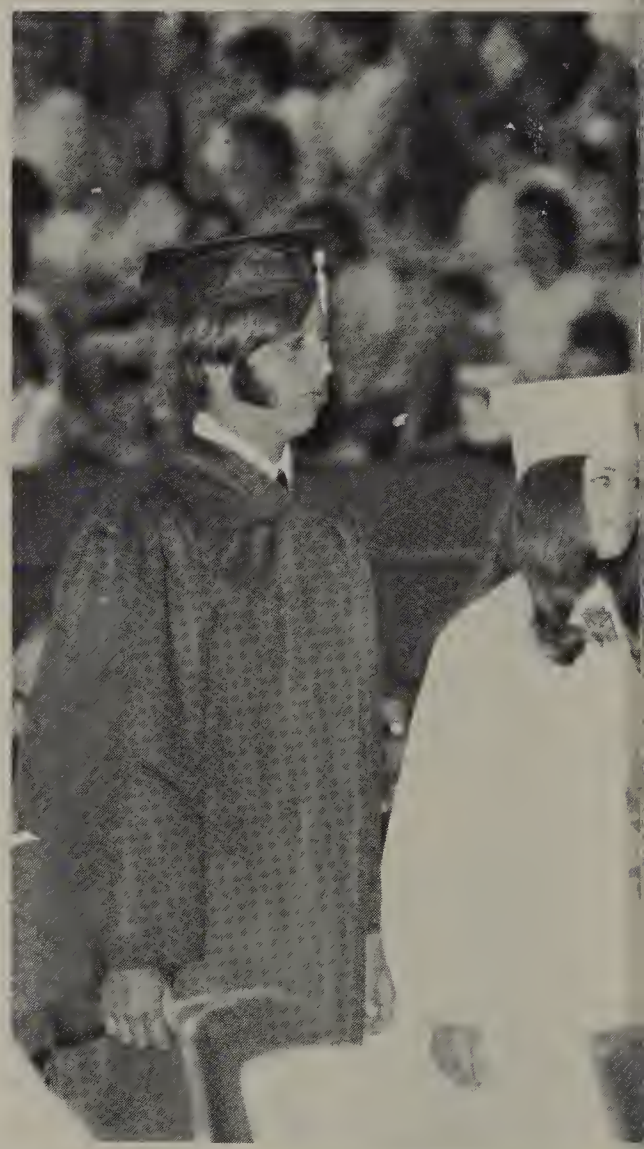
Over The Rainbow

Approximately 200 students followed the yellow brick road into the gym which was magically transformed into the land of Oz on May 12, 1972.

Outstanding features of the Prom decor were hand made chandeliers and hand made candles for table centerpieces. A black plastic ceiling gave the gym a dim air of mysters and reflected the glow of the chandeliers. The walls were covered by hand painted scenes depicting the land of Oz.

Reigning royalty were Janelle Yoder, princess; Peggy Quinn, queen; Charlie Schramm, king; and Mark Secor, prince.

As usual an after-prom was provided by the Tri-Kappa sorority.



EIGHTY-SECOND ANNUAL

Commencement

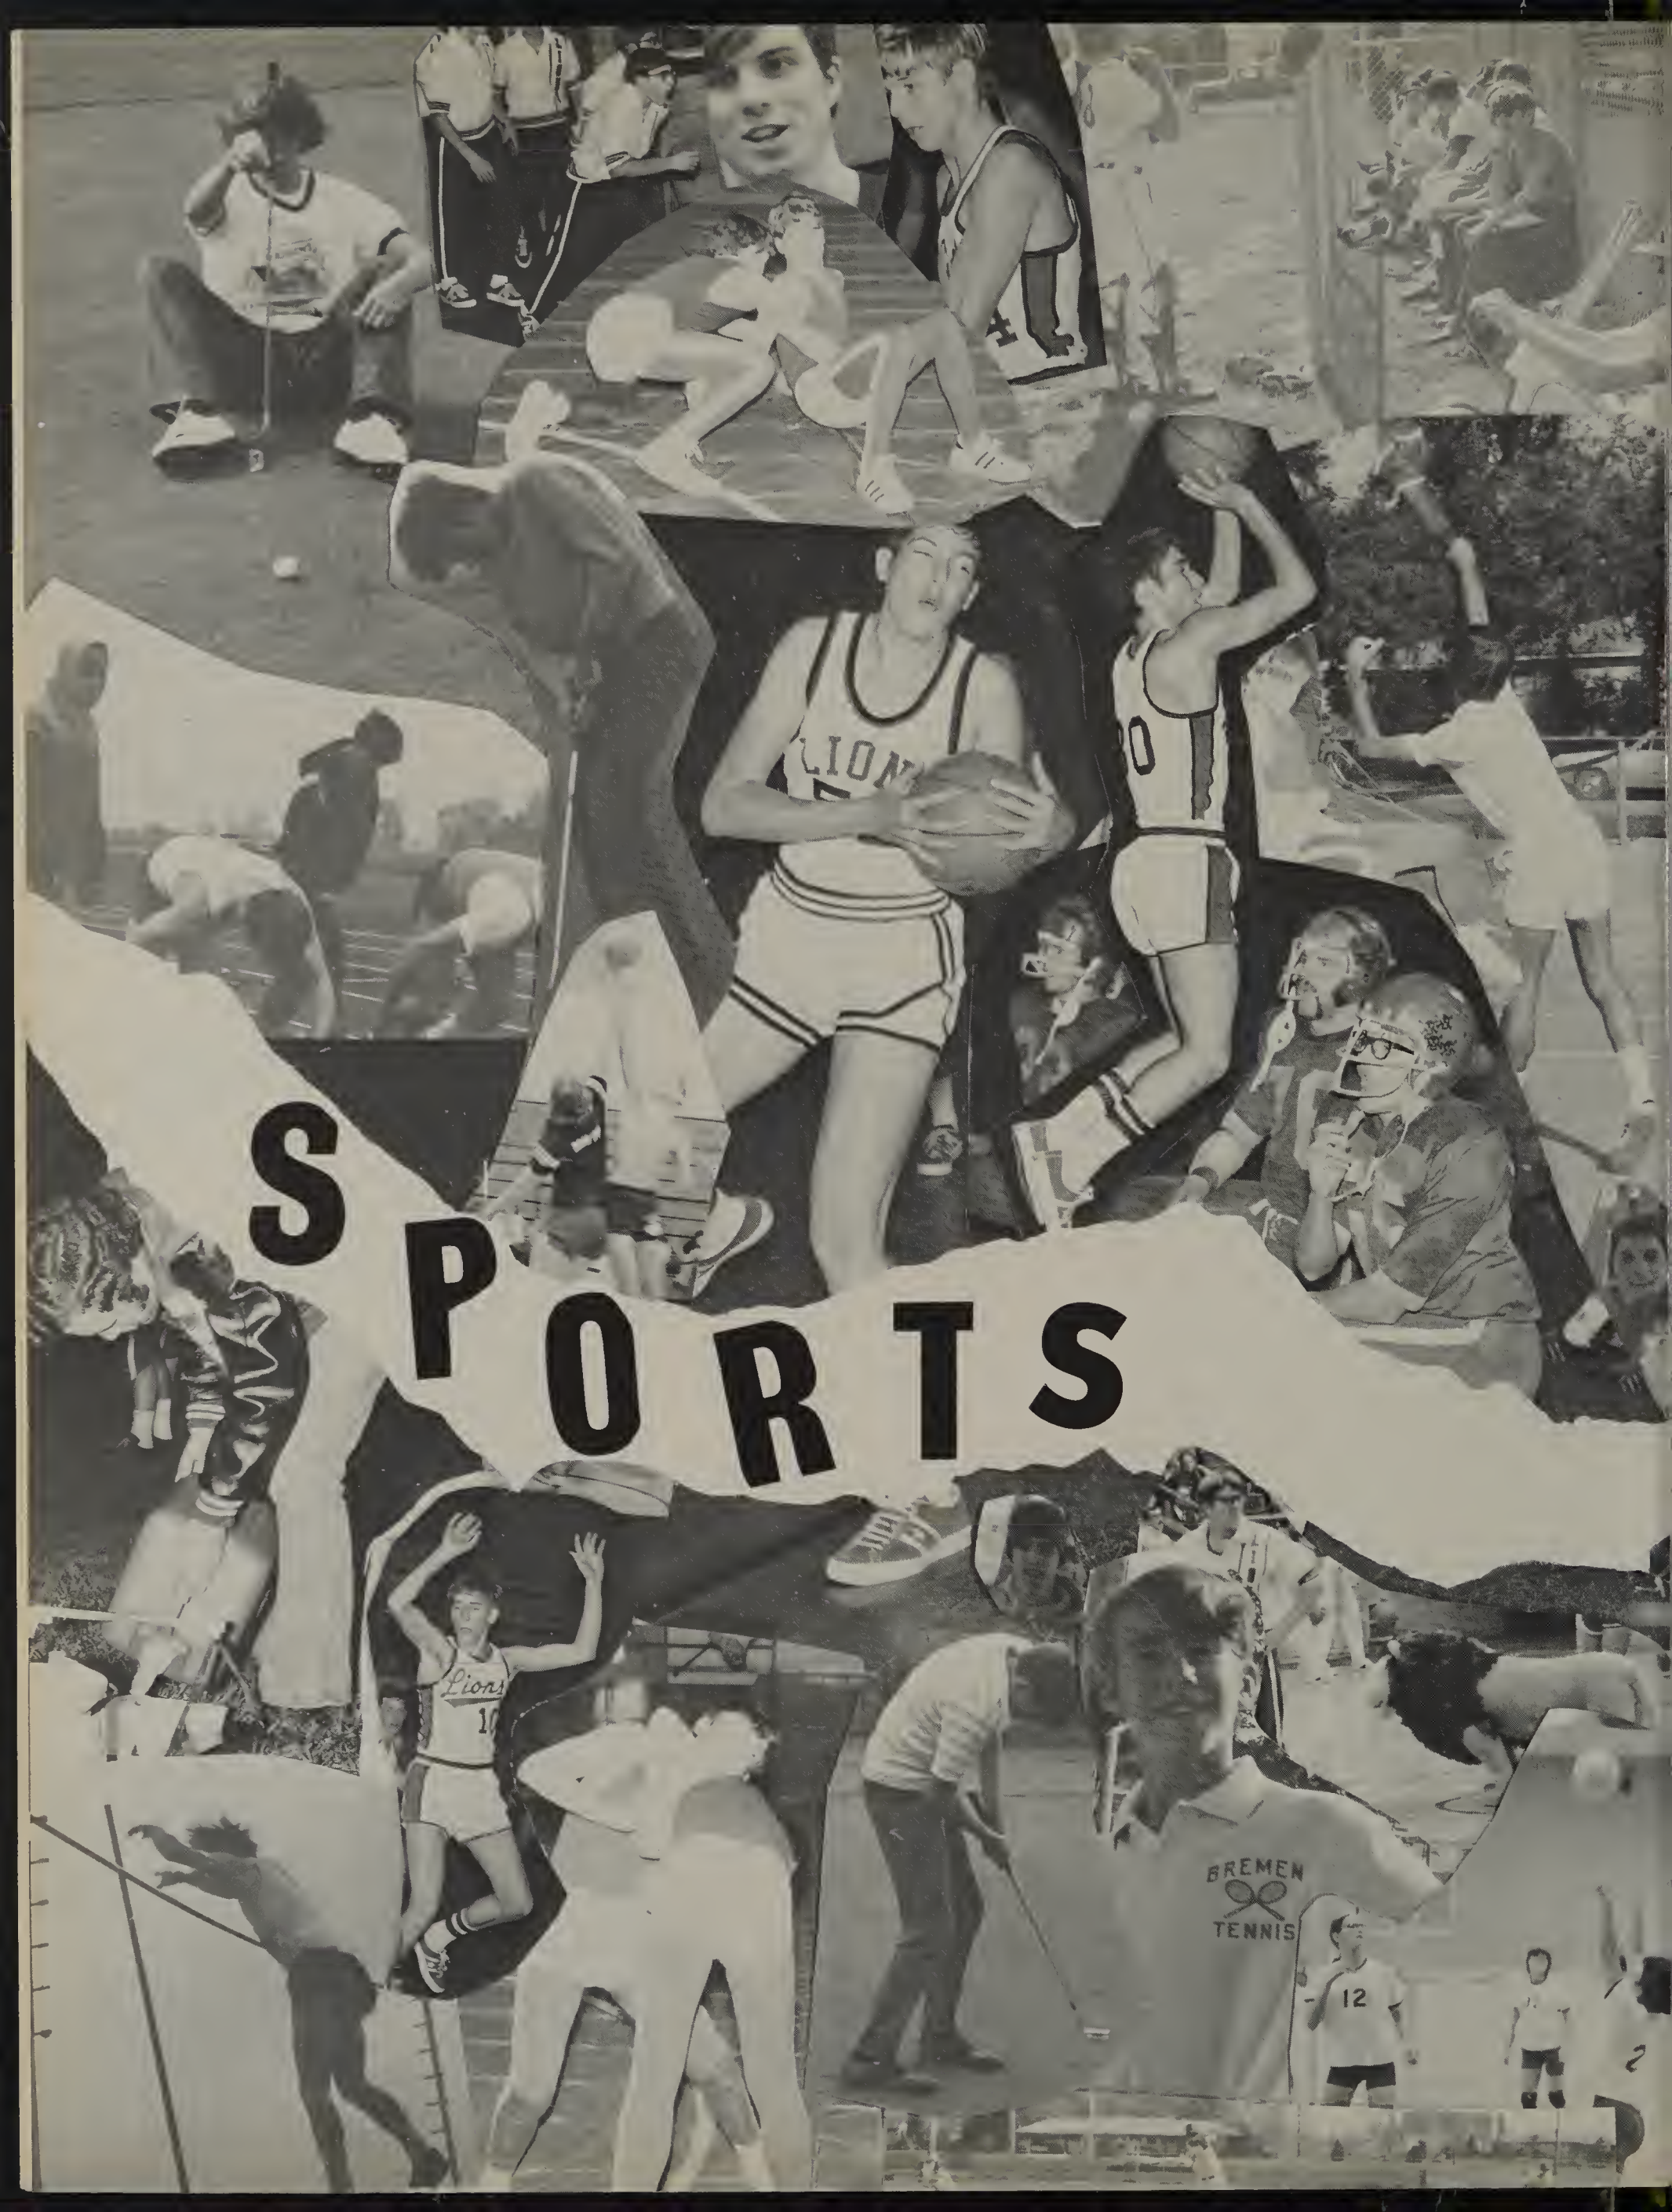
MAY 26 — COMMENCEMENT

1972

For some Graduation is a time for sorrow and for others it is a time for for gladness but what it may be it is a time of experience. This years Valvedictorian was Jeff Main. The honors of salutatorin was shared by Linda Smith and John Siefer.

This years Graduation was original in three respects. Not more then four months before one of the students was killed and the week of graduation Deb Heiser was ill and could not attend the ceremonies. And last but not least the famous war cry from Dave Schultz with diploma in hand and out of sight of the people.

SPORTS



Super Athletes: All Sports Awards

Bremen athletes who were honored with special awards at the All Sports banquet include (L-R): Marty Huber, Hi-Y baseball award; Gary Main, Lions Club wrestling award; Dennis Guard, Hi-Y Track award; Jon Hueni, Henry Kiefer tennis award; Terry Hansen, R. Alexis Clarke cross country award; and Roger Dodson who received the Dr. Otis Bowen free throw award, Kiwanis basketball award and Jaycees football award. Marty Huber was awarded a plaque for having 15 varsity letters acquired over his four years of high school.

Cross Country seems to be a forgotten sport here at B.H.S. Many times the eager beginners find it a demanding sport which requires one to be physically fit. Chuck and Terry were the only competing seniors. A member will run about 500 miles in a season; but Terry Hansen, who competed in the regional this year, ran over 900 miles before the season.

Tennis is a challenge which requires a tennis racket and, of course, a tennis ball. The object of the game is to burn your opponent with a few hot serves, and a sure back-hand.

The highlights of the season, were the new courts which moved the center of play to the swimming pool. This year tennis was moved to the fall.

Basketball Team Has New Coach

Because of increased attendance and more spirit and enthusiasm, Mr. Washburn feels that we have started a new tradition for the future basketball teams at Bremen. The Bremen Lions basketball team ended the season with a strong finish. Winning four of their last six games, the Lions season record was 9-13.

* Holiday Tourney
 Bi-County
 Sectional

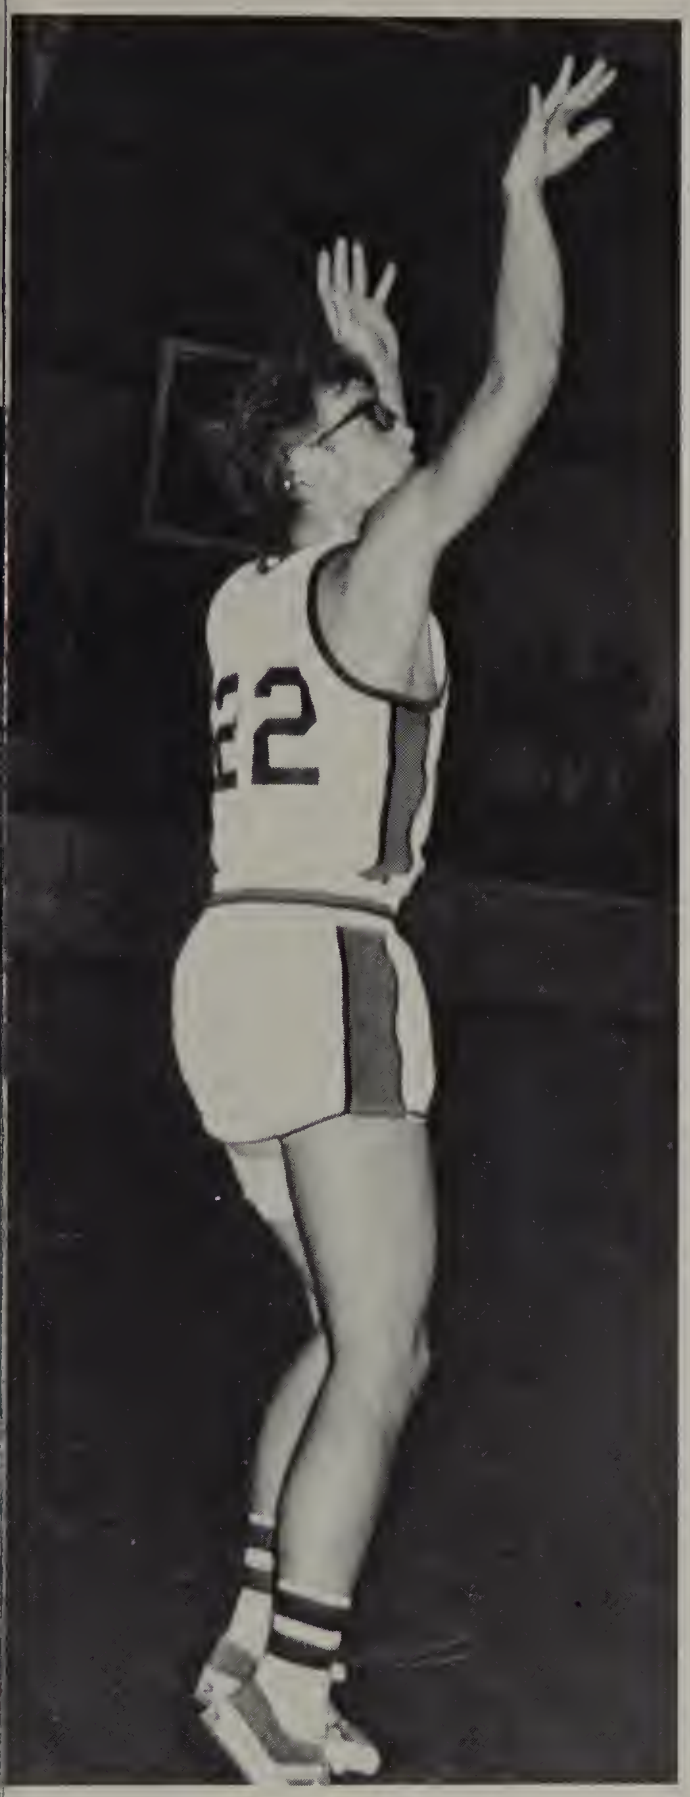
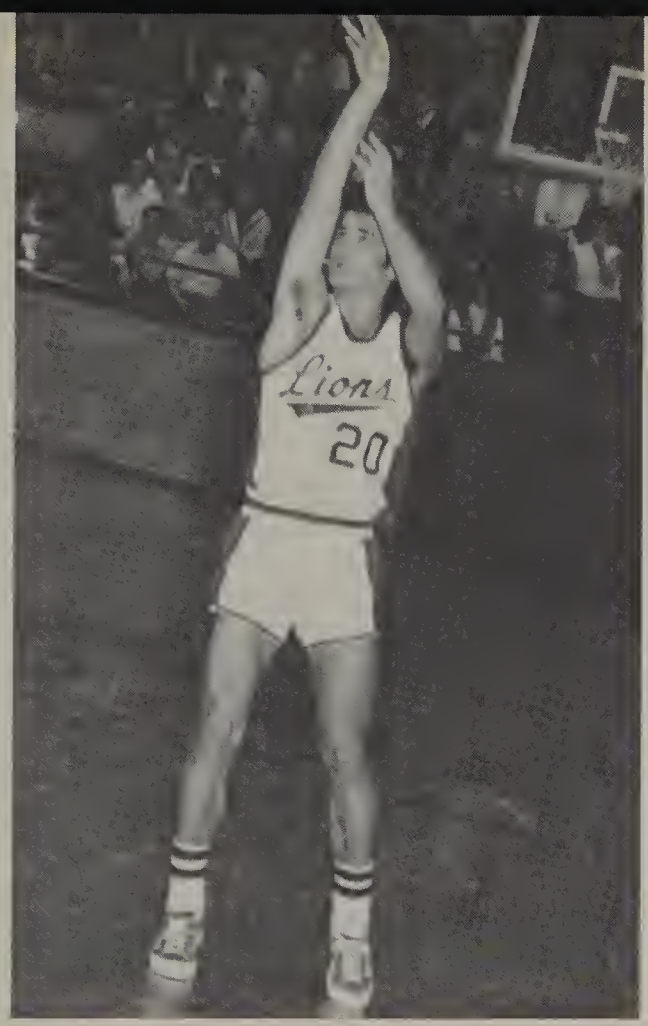
Overcoming our defeat in the Holiday and Bi-County Tournies, our boys really displayed how they could handle the ball, at the Sectional Tourney. Area papers used such discriptions as: Small Town Team...Courageous...Sportsmanship...and that we worked together as a team and not as individuals!

Excitement and enthusiasm triggered a hard-fought battle for the sectional title. The Lions stealthily stole by the North Liberty Shamrocks on Tuesday night. Returning Friday, seeking to conquer, the Lions rolled past the LaVille Lancers for a hard-earned victory. After a grueling game with Jackson, a controversial foul call allowed Jackson to snatch away the title by one point.





The Senior Lions show that coordination and team work make for a dangerous group of guys. LOWER RIGHT: Concise ball handling, gives Roger the edge. BELOW: Charlie tries to save the ball and tally a few points for the team. FAR LEFT: Marty shoots for two, backed by four years of varsity experience. LEFT: Too late to deflect Brad's shot.

Although the B-team had an unsuccessful season they ranked high in height and goals. Coach Price has shaped a lump of clay into a promising tall team of boys. In the future we will look back on this young team and be astounded by their superior height.

For the season of 1971-1972 Glen Border was the leading scorer with 165 points in total. Jack Hussman was Leading Foul Shooter with 32 pts. and Steve Manges as the Leading Rebounder.

Bremen in 4-way Tourney placed second out of eight schools.
N.L.C. placed eighth and in the section fifth.

In Wrestling we had a small team this year, in quanity and in body built. But no matter how small they were their determination and guts out ranked all other sports. Half the team had little or no experience in the wrestling field. They were headed by Mr. McPherron who has been coaching as long as he has been teaching.

At noon people witnessed the defeat of the Premium People by a Freshman Intramural team. Phil strolling down court isn't even worried. Wasn't he surprised?

The highest bowler award was given to Lester Booker. The winning team is above, D. Swisberger, J. Graverson, B. Millman, and Captain R. Ritter. Noon leagues sponsored table tennis, volleyball and basketball. Winning volleyball team were as follows, J. Siefer, C. Schramn, R. Dodson, J. Main, M. Huber, and M. Ingerham. Table tennis champ for three years J. Hueni. Basketball champs were a great Frosh. team. Doubles Bowling Champs: J. Graverson & S. Getz.

Track

A successful track season was sparked by nine returning lettermen: Two miler Terry Hansen, pole vaulters Gary Main and Marty Huber, high jumpers Roger Dodson and Steve Manges plus Jeff Main and Dennis Guard in the 440. A second place was won at the CMA invitational. Meets were very close with a difference of less than six points except for LaVille. Over half the team was plagued by injuries. Although most of them were minor, some have taken their toll. Most noteable was an emergency appendectomy to number 1 hurdler, Jim Thayer.

Lions Win Seasonal Opener

Baseball a summer sport and fun for all. Before the Laville Sectional the Bremen Lions held a 4-4 record. They won their seasonal opener from Argos at 5-2. Roger Dodson has pitched 3 out of 4 winning games. This is a record well deserved. Coaches for the team are Mr. Washburn and Mr. Price. RIGHT CORNER, Robin relaxes before a tough game with Northwood, which the Lions won. ABOVE, Marty winds up for another fast pitch across home plate.

Cook and Custodian Departments make up the core of our school. Our cooks plan nutritious meals to feed the hungry students. Janitors make sure the students have a tidy school to study in. Above Mrs. Spencer carefully degerms the fountain while Mr. Bowen and Mrs. Walterhouse prepare for another day of work.

Board Okays Free Form

Our Superintendent, Mr. Secor, and the Board of Trustees have decided on some important items of business which directly involved students of the High School. A mixed reaction was the result of these. Free-Form Week was well accepted by the students. Having the reverse effect was the ruling against issuing work permits for seniors having enough credits to graduate and who want to work half days.

Members of the Board are: R. Alexis Clarke, L. K. Modisett, Glenn E. Laudeman, Evan L. Huff, T.J. Gunterman, Mrs. Edel is Mr. Secor's hard working secretary.

Mr. Secor pauses from his activities of moving in to his new office building situated in the parking lot across from the High School.

LEFT: Mr. Somsel takes a brief moment to review mentally the incomplete details of Free Form Week. ABOVE: Mrs. Byrer pauses briefly from her duties to smile for the camers.

Mrs. Sullivan willingly assists one of the many students which are always in need of help.

Mrs. Nierste seems to have an endless job which consists mainly of typing and making copies of tests for the teachers.

Movies, Magazines, Measles

Miss Leeper, Assistant Librarian helps out Mrs. Wilson when the library is packed. She is also head of the audio visual department. Mrs. Wilson head librarian at B. H.S. can always give us a helping hand when it comes to finding books or magazines. While caring for patients Mrs. Hibner goes through the standard routine at the position of head nurse.

In the Guidance Dept. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Price counsel our students on colleges, curriculums, and plain old every-day problems. There seems to be a steady flow of traffic in and out of their offices.

"Ain't Or Isn't"

Mr. Downey tells his class to "Get to work," as he tries to help Dale Weldy with his work.

Mrs. Wagley diligently tries to prepare her freshman English students for the tenth grade.

Mrs. Goodall painstakingly tries to answer questions to explain a "Journal" to the sophomores.

Mrs. Jones helps Junior's with her experimental independent study week. Mr. Sriver says, "It's so hard to be humble when your as great as I am."

Issues: War, Draft, China, And Voting Age

Mr. Keyser forces a smile as he reluctantly re-orientates himself into his teaching duties after Miss Wagner completes her training.

ABOVE LEFT: Mr. Nierste takes a moment for a chuckle when he tells his government class that they all missed the last question on a test. TOP: Mr. Weston proudly smiles when someone askes how his new car is. He also was on the jury duty of a murder trial this year. ABOVE: Along with his duties as counselor, Mr. Price teaches ninth grade social studies and a U.S. History class.

Sum People Enjoy Math

Molecules, Micro-Organisms
Muchachas, And Mademoiselles

The Practical Arts — Training For Tomorrow

Music Directors Ad A New Flair

RIGHT: Mr. Howell is the new Choir director at B.H.S., and he also instructs several grade school classes. He also formed the new Swing Choir Group, called the B.H.S. Singers, in which he sometimes takes part as a soloist. LOWER RIGHT: Mrs. Vangilder instructor of art, examines one of the master pieces created by one of her students. LOWER LEFT: Our new band director, Mr. Berger assists Vicki with her injured baritone.

Free Form Week Lady Wrestlers Male Chefs

Free form week was a first for Bremen. Held the three days before Spring vacation, it provided an opportunity for students to try new educational experiences. Courses ranged from the practical Cooking for Boys and Auto Maintainence for Girls to the exotic Karate and Yoga.

Students were teachers and teachers were students. Field trips were an added inducement with the Home Buying class visiting houses for sale and the Aviation class visiting an airport and a jet. Some instructors donated their time and some charged professional fees which were borne by the Student Council. "It was fun -- not like school at all," was a typical reaction.

Class Of Nineteen Hundred And Seventy-Two
4 Yrs. Have Passed Quickly

Senior officers, Pres. Steve Getz, V. Pres. Marty Huber, Treas. Roger Dodson, Reporter Don Bradford and Sec. Sally Wilhite.

In the fall of 1968 we set foot in the high school as students for the first time. We didn't know what to expect and we were a little frightened. Graduation seemed as far away. Remember when we got booed at by the Seniors after we finally got up the nerve to yell, "Freshmen, Rah, Rah, Freshmen?"

As Sophomores we felt superior over the Freshmen and when we picked out our class rings we felt special.

During our Jr. Year we collected for foreign exchange week and made the top magazine sale in the history of B.H.S. Soon it was time to think about building the prom. "Evening in Paris" was chosen for the theme.

Before we knew it we were Mighty Seniors. Now it was our turn to boo at the Freshmen. It was time to get measured for caps and gowns and to order announcements and cards. A time to devote some serious thinking about the future. As May 26 neared it seemed almost impossible that four years had passed by so quickly. Each of us realized that soon we would be on our own and accepting responsibilities of adulthood. Soon, with diploma in hand, we will be starting a new life but we will always remember our years spent together at B.H.S.

In Memory of

Bill Gilmer March 14, 1972

The little town slept through the tragic night,
Unmoved by the hurried flight of police and ambulance to the sight,
A life, so young, cut short,
Not to be forgotten through May's strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" when one who should have climbed the stairs is nowhere found.

Senior Class Of Seventy-Two

What can I say about BHS that nobody else did besides that I found the real meaning of friendliness. I'd like to thank all of you. Especially Nancy Troche & Marla Wise, to make me feel like one of you & make my year here one of the happiest & yes, one of the saddest of my life. With Mr. Nierste's easiest tests & Mrs. Jones' Polish dance, the excitement of the Sectional Basketball games & the prom, the year I shared with you was very enjoyable & full of experiences.

I would say my favorite subject was Algebra II because I definitely love mathematics.

I wish the best of luck to the Juniors in their next year Gov't & Econ. classes 'cause they are really difficult. I think all seniors will agree with me even Randy who didn't even study for his econ. final.

What about Quinns, they are the nicest host family I ever had for such a long time. I wish the best of luck to Peggy & Patty in their new lives.

There are so many people in school & out that I want to thank, that it would take the whole...yearbook.

I wish to Larry Wilhite to get his dream & have a sojourn at least as enjoyable as mine.

I wish luck for all of you & hopefully wish that all do not forget me too soon. I have a dream too: to see all of you in two years when I hopefully will come back.

Yours truly

Brigitte M.R.

In Memory of Homer Hochstetler

What can be said about the life of one fifteen year old boy in such a short space as this?

Very little, yet quite a lot; The life of each individual is so complex that it could not possibly be contained in a thousand books. Here we can say only that the life of Homer Hochstetler will be remembered as one possessing deep faith, and the respect of those around him for these fine qualities.

Perhaps he has set an example for us to follow and through this experience we will learn to appreciate our own lives just a little more.

"I love my Christmas present, I just wish I knew what it was!"

With these five agile officers the sophomore class captured the Spirit Stick with ease. They are, Don Rader, Sue Mougin, Sue Rowe, Jack Hussman, and Jay Dietrich.

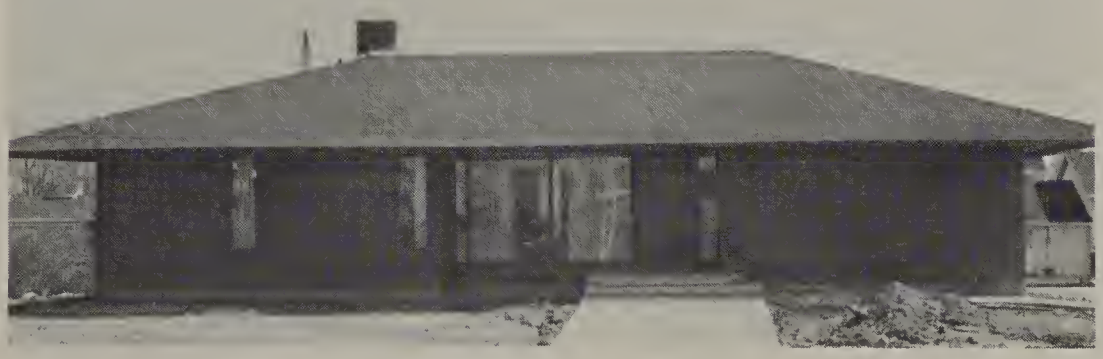
Two Additions And A Subtraction



1972 was marked by several arrivals and one large departure. Mrs. Geneva Molebash, pillar of the Math department, retired after 35 years of teaching. She was honored by receiving the Teacher of the Year award conferred by a vote of the students. Mrs. Molebash had mixed emotions about ending her career. She enjoyed teaching but felt it was time "to step out and let youth step in." She will be fondly remembered and appreciated by her students and colleagues.

The new arrivals came with Bremen High School's baby boom. Mr. Weston and Mr. Siefer, above, became proud papas with in weeks of each other.

Another addition to the BHS scene was the completion of the new Administration building in May. An Open House was held for the public.

Good times, hard times and experience. This is what the staff of 1971-72 tried to create in our sprig-COLLAGE. For some we have past the supreme test of being the best book ever; for others we have failed. What ever the consequence we would like to give a big hand to the greatest staff. Without the help of many wonderful and talented people this book would have never been. You know who you are so stand up and be proud of a great book. A special thanks goes to Mrs. Jones and Mr. Wiebe. Mrs. Jones witheld from screaming for one full year and giving up at the times we needed her most. She calmly did over half thrown layouts and with patience she explained why our far fetched ideas would not work. Even though she had to tell us time and time again, not this way, you can't do that, just a minute group, okay have it your way. Also to Mr. Wiebe who was our photographer. He moved in and out of most the activities getting the best shots and to John Sauter a thanks well deserved. He also was photographer and took pictures during homeroom and rainy track meets. Even though his pictures were harrassed and he was yelled at constantly without him this book could never be complete.

Yes this has been a year of promise and doubt and now I would like to share a few thoughts from a friend.

Happiness is and experience only to be held,
when it is shared;
only to be missed;
when it is gone;
only to be remembered
when it returns. . . . . .

So we say for now so long B. H. S. but not good-bye.
